MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Speaker laid before the House, and had read, the following messages from the Governor:

Executive Office,

Austin, Texas, September 8, 1934.

To the Forty-third Legislature in Third Called Session:

At the request of Representatives Merritt and Scott, I submit the bill hereto attached to be entitled "An Act to amend Subdivision 32 of Article 199, Title 8, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925, amended by Acts 1931, Forty-second Legislature, First Called Session, page 27, Chapter 14, Section 1, amended by Acts 1933, Forty-third Legislature, Regular Session, page 371, Chapter 145, so as to change the time and terms of holding the terms of district court in Nolan, Mitchell, Scurry and Borden Counties, constituting the Thirty-second Judicial District of Texas; etc."

Respectfully submitted,

MIRIAM A. FERGUSON,
Governor of Texas.

Executive Office,

Austin, Texas, September 10, 1934.

To the Forty-third Legislature in Third Called Session:

Upon the request of various Senators and because of the crowded condition of our State hospitals, I am submitting herewith as an emergency measure making appropriation for additional buildings and equipment for said hospitals to the following institutions:

San Antonio State Hospital, San Antonio, Texas.

Austin State Hospital, Austin, Texas.

Wichita Falls State Hospital, Wichita Falls, Texas.

Terrell State Hospital, Terrell, Texas.

Austin State School, Austin, Texas.

Rusk State Hospital, Rusk, Texas.

Respectfully submitted,

MIRIAM A. FERGUSON,
Governor of Texas.

Executive Office,

Austin, Texas, September 11, 1934.

To the Forty-third Legislature in Third Called Session:

Without prejudice, I submit for your consideration the subject of validation of revenue bonds issued by cities and towns to purchase additional water powers, riparian rights, or to build, improve, enlarge, extend or repair any light system, water system or sewer system owned or operated by any such city or town.

Without prejudice and by request, I submit for your consideration the attached bill, being "An Act validating all concurrent resolutions adopted at previous sessions of the Legislature granting to persons, firms and corporations permission to sue the State through any of its courts upon claims against the State, providing that nothing therein shall operate to create any cause of action against the State, providing that same shall be effective both as to suits already filed and pending and as to suits hereafter filed by authority of said concurrent resolutions, and declaring an emergency."

Without prejudice, I submit for your consideration the attached bill, being "An Act providing that whenever any water control and improvement district, embracing lands in two or more counties, and containing not less than one hundred and twenty-five thousand (125,000) acres, has entered into contract with the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, or other agency of the United States, for the sale of its bonds, and the original engineering plans in respect of such district's irrigation project have been amended or changed in accordance with requirements and conditions prescribed by the engineers for the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, or other agency of the United States, the Attorney General is authorized to approve said district's bonds to be issued and sold pursuant to such contract, without requiring approval of such amended plans by the Texas State Board of Water Engineers and without requiring approval of the issuance of such bonds by said board, and declaring an emergency."

Respectfully submitted,
MIRIAM A. FERGUSON,
Governor of Texas.

Executive Office,
Austin, Texas, September 12, 1934.
To the Forty-third Legislature in
Third Called Session:

By request of Lieutenant Governor Witt and Senator Poage, I submit for your consideration the question of providing relief for distressed debtors whose assets for the time being are what might be called frozen because not capable of being disposed of for their normal value; for debtors not in fact insolvent but for the time being unable to meet current obligations although possessed of property sufficient under normal conditions to do so; so that the assets of such debtors may not be sacrificed and their businesses destroyed, but such assets conserved, businesses saved and employes continued in employment and thereby unemployment and future distress prevented, and consideration of the bill hereto attached covering said matters is submitted.

Respectfully submitted,
MIRIAM A. FERGUSON,
Governor of Texas.

Executive Office,
Austin, Texas, September 12, 1934.
To the Forty-third Legislature in
Third Called Session:

I herewith submit for your consideration a bill to be entitled "An Act creating Colorado River Authority, a governmental agency, body politic and corporate, as a water control and conservation district under Section 59, of Article XVI, of the Constitution," all of which being more fully set out in said bill hereto attached.

Respectfully submitted,
MIRIAM A. FERGUSON,
Governor of Texas.

HOUSE BILL NO. 25 ON SECOND READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 25, A bill to be entitled "An Act for the purpose of releasing the interest and penalties on all delinquent ad valorem and poll taxes that were delinquent on or before August 1, 1934, due the State, any county, city, school district, road district, levee improvement district, water improvement district, and water control and improvement district, and water control and improvement district, irrigation district, and other defined subdivisions of the State, provided same are paid on or before March 31, 1935, with an addition of one per cent (1%) on said taxes; provided said taxes are paid after March 31, 1935, and on or before December 31, 1935, with an addition of two per cent (2%) on said taxes; and provided said taxes are paid after December 31, 1935, and on or before March 31, 1936, with an addition of four per cent (4%) on said taxes; etc., and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Russell offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 25 by striking out all of Section 1 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 1. That all interest and penalty that have accrued on all ad valorem and poll taxes that were delinquent on or before August 1, 1934, due the State, or any county, city, school district, road district, levee improvement district, water improvement district and water control and improvement district, irrigation district, and other defined subdivisions of the State, shall be and the same are hereby released; provided, said ad valorem and poll taxes are paid on or before October 31, 1934, with an addition of one per cent (1%) penalty on said taxes; and same shall be and the same are hereby released; provided, said ad valorem and poll taxes are paid after October 31, 1934, and on or before November 30, 1934, with an addition of one and one-half per cent (1½%) penalty on said taxes; and same shall be and same are hereby released; provided, said ad valorem and poll tax are paid after November 30, 1934, and on or before December 31, 1934, with an addition of two per cent (2%) penalty on said taxes; and same shall be and same are hereby released; provided, said ad valorem and poll taxes are paid after December 31, 1934, and on or before January 31, 1935, with an addition of three per cent (3%) penalty on said taxes; provided, that the penalty prescribed herein shall not be cumulative."

RUSSELL,
GOOD.

Mr. Alexander offered the following substitute for the amendment by Mr. Russell:

Amend House Bill No. 25 by striking out all of Section 1 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 1. That all interests and penalties that have accumulated on all ad valorem and poll taxes that were delinquent on or before August 1, 1934, due to the State or to any county common school district, road district, levee improvement district, water improvement district, water control and water improvement district, irrigation district and other defined subdivisions of the State (except such cities, towns, villages, special school districts and independent school districts which do not adopt the provisions of this Act in the manner hereinafter provided), shall be and the same are hereby released, provided said ad valorem and poll taxes are voluntarily paid on or before September 30, 1934. If said taxes are not paid on or before said 30th day of September, 1934, all interests and penalties that have been accrued on said taxes prior to said 30th day of September, 1934, shall be released, but there shall be added a penalty for non-payment of said taxes prior to said date as follows:

"If said taxes are paid voluntarily during the month of October, 1934, a penalty of one per cent of said taxes shall be added; if said taxes are paid voluntarily during the month of November, 1934, a penalty of two per cent shall be added; if said taxes are paid voluntarily during the month of December, 1934, a penalty of three per cent shall be added; if said taxes are paid voluntarily during the month of January, 1935, a penalty of four per cent shall be added; if said taxes are paid voluntarily during the month of February, 1935, a penalty of five per cent shall be added; if said taxes are paid voluntarily during the month of March, 1935, a penalty of six per cent shall be added; if said taxes are paid voluntarily during the month of April, 1935, a penalty of seven per cent shall be added; if said taxes are paid voluntarily during the month of May, 1935, a penalty of eight per cent shall be added; if said taxes are paid voluntarily during the month of June, 1935, a penalty of nine per cent shall be added; if said taxes are paid voluntarily during the month of July, 1935, a penalty of ten per cent shall be added. If said taxes are not paid prior to August 1, 1935, there shall be added a penalty of ten per cent of said taxes and penalties together with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum on the amount of said taxes from and after the first day of August, 1935, until said taxes and penalties are paid. Provided past penalties herein prescribed shall not be cumulative, and provided further that if suit is filed for the collection of such taxes nothing herein shall be construed as releasing any cost of such suit. The provisions hereof shall not apply to delinquent ad valorem and poll taxes due to cities, towns, villages, special school districts and independent school districts unless and until said provisions are adopted by resolution or ordinance of the governing body of any such city, town, village, special school district or independent school district."
